

Spring 2025 Newsletter

Spring is the perfect time to refresh your financial goals, whether you're a student learning to manage money, a small business owner growing your dream, or a member preparing your taxes. In this edition, we're highlighting our fantastic NextGen Account, Small Business Week, a must-visit local restaurant, our budgeting and planning tool, an exclusive tax prep reward for members, and how to stay alert for IRS tax fraud.

NextGen Account

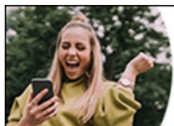

Are you a student—or the parent of one—looking for a stress-free, flexible banking option? Our Student Account (NextGen) is designed with young adults in mind, offering easy money management, great perks, and no hidden fees. Security Center

Unfortunately, tax season brings an increase in scams and fraud. Protect yourself from identity theft and fake IRS contacts by staying informed.

⊘ The IRS will NEVER:

- ✓ Call, email, or text demanding immediate payment.
- ✓ Threaten arrest or legal action over unpaid taxes.
- ✓ Ask for payment via gift cards, wire transfers, or cryptocurrency.

If you receive a suspicious message, do not respond. Instead, report it directly to the IRS. Protect your identity, keep your financial information secure, and always file taxes through a trusted provider. CLICK HERE to visit our security center for up to the date information on security.

Small Business Week

Small businesses are the backbone of our communities, and we are proud to support local entrepreneurs! This annual celebration, hosted by the U.S. Small Business Administration, recognizes the hard work and dedication of all small business owners.

At Greenwood Credit Union, we offer business checking accounts, low-rate loans, merchant services, and financial guidance to help small businesses succeed.

 Join us during Small Business Week (May 5th-11th) for special resources and offers! Stop by or check our website during the whole month of May to learn how we can help your business thrive.
