

Spring 2026 Newsletter

In this issue, we're welcoming spring with fresh opportunities to grow, plan, and achieve financial goals. We're highlighting smart ways to build for the future with our NextGen account, supporting community success through personalized small business banking, sharing an important fraud reminder to help you stay one step ahead of scams, and exploring mortgage options to help you buy, refinance, or move forward with your homeownership goals- all from people you trust!

Student Banking that Builds Your Future

Managing money as a student doesn't have to be hard. With a NextGen account from Greenwood Credit Union, you get everything you need- for free. Track your spending with simple budgeting tools, bank anytime with premier mobile and online access, and stay on top of your finances with real-time alerts. Plus, with Credit Sense, you can establish, monitor, and grow your credit from day one. Best of all, its all free and NextGen allows you to bank with a place that really cares about you and our communities. Find out how committed Greenwood is to help you succeed by opening (or recommending) a NextGen account today!

Don't Share Your Information!

Even though the weather is getting nicer, scammers are not! They may call or text pretending to be Greenwood and ask for information like a one-time passcode, online/mobile banking credentials, or personal info. Don't share it. Greenwood will never ask for codes, passwords, personal information, or sensitive details. If you get a suspicious request, hang up and call us directly. Stay alert and protect your information!
